

Worksheet 1:

Hearing the news that someone has died

Ellie, Ben and Alex were picked up early from school one day, by their dad.

He had some sad news for them, as their mum had died suddenly.

Auntie V explained that when you die your body stops working and your life comes to an end. You cannot feel anything anymore or see, think, speak, or hear things.

The adults wanted to do all they could to help and support the three children.

If someone in your family has died, who told you the news?
